Golf World has walked the forests, mountains, heaths and seashores of Europe to bring you the thoroughbreds of continental golf.

This year's Golf World Top 100 is a cracking list of the old classics mixed with the audacity and freshness of the new. It encompasses tradition, exclusivity and style but is able to indulge our passion for out and out holiday golf.

There is a new course designed by Arthur Hills and Drew Rogers that sits proudly at the head of its class. The best new course in Europe for our 2003 ranking:
